Description
'Account Usage Rules' name
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• remove the 'account' as its already within 'account manager' its superfluous/redundant adding a new rule
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• select the textfield so you can type without needing to tab, like add account dialog.
Account Usage Rule for ...
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Only activate/enable checkbox of accounts that are 'enabled' within account manager. There is no need to enable all accounts when making a new rule. They are disabled for what ever reason.• Would also be nice if the default sorting would be enabled accounts top, and disable accounts below. and or remember the users last sort function within this dialog.• On mass selection, we should not perform mass account refreshing when space bar is pressed, this should be bound to the checkbox function and not the 'refresh' button!
General Controlling Rules
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Account Manager > 'Use Account(s) to download', move to Usage Rules, theoretically this is usage rule...• Make another general along the lines of the above, to disable all free download methods.
